

Bruce Taylor Featured Presenter at North Suburban Business Development Foundation Event

Banking leaders speak on obtaining credit in difficult economy

ROSEMONT, IL – May 4, 2009 – Cole Taylor Bank today announced that Bruce W. Taylor, Chairman of Taylor Capital Group, Inc. (Nasdaq: TAYC), the parent company of Cole Taylor Bank, will be a featured presenter at a North Suburban Business Development Foundation event on Tuesday, May 5, 2009.

The event, which begins at 7:30 a.m. at the Skokie Public Library, will be a discussion on Obtaining Credit in a Difficult Economy, and will also feature Rick Mattoon, Senior Economist and Economic Advisor at the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, and James C. Lytle, Managing Director of First Bank & Trust.

The North Suburban Business Development Foundation is a non-for-profit affiliate of the Skokie Chamber of Commerce.

The Skokie Public Library is at 5215 Oakton in Skokie, Illinois. For more information or to register for the event, contact the Skokie Chamber of Commerce at 847-673-0240.

About Cole Taylor Bank

Cole Taylor Bank is a $4.6 billion, Chicago-based commercial bank specializing in serving the business banking, real estate lending and wealth management requirements of closely held and family-owned small- and medium-sized businesses. Cole Taylor is a member of the FDIC and an Equal Housing Lender.

Media Contact:       Ilene Stevens
                              847.653.7731